Sermon Notes for June 23rd

“What We Are Praying When We Pray the Lord’s Prayer”

“And Lead us Not into Temptation”

Sermon Text: James 1:12-15 (p. 1288); Old Testament Text: Psalm 119:9-16(p. 650); Gospel Text: Matthew 18:7-9 (p. 1046).

1. Read James 1:12 (p. 1288).

What does it mean to you to remain steadfast under trial?

How could knowing that God really loves you enable you to remain steadfast under trial?

2. Read James 1:13 (p. 1288).

If James 1:13 is true (And it is!), why would we pray that God not lead us into temptation?

3. Read James 1:14 (p. 1288). What does James identify as the source of our temptation?

Can you think of any godly disciplines that could help us from dwelling on our own desires?

4. Read James 1:15 (p. 1288).

What does James say desire gives birth to?

What does James say fully grown sin brings forth?

5. Read Psalm 119:9-16 (p. 650).

In your own words, describe ways the psalmist instructs us to keep our hearts pure.
